Zombies of England UNITE!

This is just a quick reminder about the HUGE Zombie walk, to support the British Heart Foundation and the Blood Donor Service, the Sports Day of the Dead.

So get into your goriest clothes and slap on some make up and head on down to Leicester Square, London... for 10ish on Monday, August 31st, there will be a hell of a lot of stuff going on and then at 11am a shamble to the nearby Charity Zombie Sports Day of the Dead....

Two British Zombie Flicks are being shown on the Monday morning, which is part of the Frightfest Horror Festival and they are Colin, the famous £45 zombie film and Zombie Women of Satan, a film made in the North East directed by the up & coming Warren Speed, HE ROCKS. It should be a belter, and I know the Zombie Women of Satan crew are bringing a pile of 'Zombettes' along with cast and crew to help make sure the zombiewalk and their screening goes with a bang...

If you need help with make up or costumes, then for guides, check out www.terror4fun.com we have one written for us by the Shaun of the Dead make up guru, Stuart Conran, for download and they will help you get your heads around exactly what kind of things make you look more like the living dead. AND from 9am there will be not only Terror4fun but make up artists too, in the Empire Cinema to help people if they need it!

SO, get down to Leicester Square on Monday August 31st, and join in the Zombie Madness...

If you have any queries then check our website or send me an email - ed@terror4fun.com

ZOMBIE FEST 2009 - EVERYBODY DIED

Once again the dust has settled and the blood has dried up and Zombie Fest 2009 has come and gone. This year more than 50 brave souls came to the secret location, (near Milton Keynes) for zombie films, zombie games, zombie shooting and zombie archery and a whole pile of booze, bacon sandwiches and cups of tea in the morning to battle the hangovers....

During the big Survival Horror part of the weekend, a small Theme Park was set up and the players had to survive the various events that occurred and of course, it started with a single zombie and went from there, playing out like a strange mix of Murder Mystery, a game of tick and the bloodiest fancy dress party you have ever been to...

In the end there was a chance to survive, a full

HAZ MAT suit ready for people to work out who should survive and for them to don this and escape, but people being people they killed each other first... You can see someone in the suit being devoured (above)

ZOMBIE WOMEN OF SATAN

"Zombie Women of Satan" is a comedy horror feature written and directed by Warren Speed and Steve O'Brien the movie tells the tale of rock singer Skye Brannigan's (The awesome Victoria Hopkins) quest to find her missing sister who has been abducted by a strange cult. Skye is helped / hindered by bizarre freakshow burlesque troupe Flesharama who get caught up in her quest, as they are attacked left, right and centre by a vicious gang of marauding sexy zombie women and the crazy Zander family who created them !! Expect laughs aplenty, abundant OTT violence, lots of blood and guts, strange characters and many gorgeous zombie women !! You have never seen anything like this before !!

Check this out on Monday, August 31st, 2009 as part of Frightfest...

FILM4 FRIGHTFEST

Thursday 27th to Monday 31st of August. The films are now in place, the guests confirmed, their flights and hotels booked and the screening schedule has been worked out. Check out the Frightfest website for details of all of the films... This year is a Zombie Special with films including Colin, Zombie Women of Satan (See above) and Dead Snow... And remember you heard it here first but I think the sleeper hit of Frightfest will be La Horde, its French, people are uncertain but watch out... Its super gory... <http://www.frightfest.co.uk/frightfestfilms.html>

FILMS THAT NEED YOU!

ORKNEY

The Odinsay Incident

The project is in the very early stages and hopefully, if we can raise the funds we will be starting shooting next Summer. The setting for our movie will be on Sanday, one of the Orkney Islands. It is very remote and a perfect place to make a zombie movie (hopefully!!). It's a non-profit making organisation and they want to get a film making community set up in Orkney. Once things moving they would like to hear from any make-up artists who could help. Hopefully in the future they will be looking for cast and crew. Below is a link to a website page with details of the zombie project. <http://www.orkneyislandsfilms.org.uk/odinsay.html>

Be a Zombie

Brighton, UK, on Halloween - October 31st, 2009. The Mission : Raise as many Zombiez as possible for a sequence out of our film tentatively entitled ZombieZ! NOTTINGHAM

Ay Up Me Duck Of The Dead

Currently in pre-production, 'Ay up me duck of the dead' is a short film that follows two completely different personalities through a nightmare journey around the street of Nottingham city centre. If you live in the East Midlands and fancy lurching around early one weekend in September 2009, we're currently looking for zombies to play various roles in the short film ! Please email: contactus@ayupmeduckofthedead.co.uk

More details of these films can be found on www.terror4fun.com and also let us know if your zombie film project needs help...

MORE IRISH ZOMBIES IN THE KNACKERY

The Knackery is the new feature film from leading indie team, Yellow Fever Productions and is written/produced/directed by George Clarke (creator of the award winning Battle Of The Bone) who also stars in it. The Knackery is the countries most watched reality game show - think 'The Running Man' meets '28 Days Later' - and the last episode of the season is about to get underway. Behind the scenes, all is not as it seems with a massive secret being hidden from the public. One of the contestants, Four, is an undercover reporter sent in to find out what is going on... But will he stay alive long enough to get the secret out?

Action packed with kick-ass martial arts scenes and soaked in enough blood and gore to keep hardcore horror fans happy, The Knackery is the ultimate in family entertainment! (Strictly 18's and over)

Things are going well, with shoots happening every day and a record 10 killer zombie scenes filmed in 1 day, and it looks like the new feature-in-four-weeks will get its premiere at the first annual Yellow Fever Independent Film Festival after-all.

CHARLIE HIGSON

AS YOU HAVE NEVER SEEN HIM BEFORE

Charlie Higson signs copies of his new zombie horror book THE ENEMY at London's scariest attraction: The London Bridge Experience and The London Tombs. 6 – 8pm on Wednesday 2nd September. 2-4 Tooley Street, London, SE1 2PF
Nearest tube: London Bridge

The launch of this autumn's scariest book The Enemy is taking place at the UK's scariest venue - The London Tombs, where the skeletons of over 380 plague victims were found...

Bestselling Young Bond author and Fast Show comedian Charlie Higson will launch his new zombie horror series, The Enemy. This is the FIRST opportunity to meet Charlie Higson and buy a signed copy before they go on sale nationwide on 3rd September.

Come dressed as a zombie or get a zombie make-over on the night and, for those who dare, you'll also get a free tour of the tombs. The Enemy is set in London where a mystery illness attacks everyone over the age of 14. Those afflicted either die or become so crazed by disease they are little more than zombies ... who feed on children.

Charlie Higson says, "We all need to be scared. It's good for the soul. And kids need to be scared as much as adults."

Not for the fainthearted, the London Bridge Experience is located inside the eerie catacombs underneath London Bridge where a 14th century plague pit was discovered.

Entry to this top London attraction is FREE to celebrate publication of The Enemy. To get the best experience of the tombs, visitors will be admitted in groups. Children under 11 should be accompanied by an adult.

SMASH CUT... ONCE SEEN NEVER FORGOTTEN

Premiering at this years Frightfest and out on DVD on August 31st is this awesome tribute film to classic gory horror films...

SMASH CUT is the dizzying and unique homage to the classic horror films of Herschell Gordon Lewis. SMASH CUT is the story of ABLE WHITMAN, a troubled filmmaker losing his mind in an extraordinary way.

After his latest "serious" film is met with gales of laughter, Able decides to drown his sorrows at a local strip club--where he meets dancer GIGI SPOT. Minutes later, he's convinced her to star in his next project. Minutes after that, he's killed her in a drink driving accident. Needing to dispose of the body, Able stumbles upon the one place nobody would notice a corpse...spread around the set of his new horror film. When the response to this new footage is praised for its realism, the guilt ridden Able has a complete mental breakdown. Believing he has finally discovered the key to making a great horror film, the director quickly discovers that one human body doesn't yield a lot of parts, and if he wants to finish, he's going to have to keep on killing.

The Dead Walk Book

Competition Time

Completely revised, expanded & updated, The Dead Walk is a highly informative and entertaining study of the diverse zombie film phenomenon. Included are a visual feast of wide-ranging and often shocking films from the monochrome epics of the 1930's & 1940's, the science-fiction orientated zombie films of the 1950's, the graphic splatter films & so-called "video nasties" of the 1980's before coming bang up to date to reflect the re-emergence of the zombie genre again, only now racing rather than shuffling towards box office domination anew.

The Dead Walk is available from good bookshops and also from the Noir Publishing website at: <http://www.noirpublishing.co.uk/film.htm#the>

ZOMBIES OF SCOTLAND UNITE!

The Edinburgh Zombie Club is a free monthly film club that takes place on the last Wednesday of every month at the Brass Monkey pub, with two screenings from 7pm onwards.

It's called the Zombie Club but we'll be screening anything that falls into that early 80's corner video shop exploitation genre...could be the Italian gore/sci-fi of Luigi Cozzi's 'Contamination' or the apocalypse now rip off 'The Last Hunter' starring David Warbeck or some straight Italian Zombie stuff from Lucio Fulci...also, some mainstream, albeit, cool stuff. There's usually a theme or concept each month.

There is also a kick-ass newsletter to subscribe to as well, so get signed up...

Previous films that have been shown include Fulci's

"Zombie Flesh Eaters" and "The Beyond", the Carpenter double bill of "They Live" and "The Thing", "Death Line" (aka. Raw Meat), "Tombs of The Blind Dead", "Living Dead At The Manchester Morgue", "Basket Case", "Coffy", "Ms.45", "Zombie Holocaust (aka. Dr Butcher M.D.)", "Burial Ground", "City Of The Living Dead", "Cannibal Apocalypse", "The Switchblade Sisters", "Prince Of Darkness", "Night Of The Bloody Apes" and "Curse Of The Doll People" amongst others.

HAVEN'T WE MET BEFORE?

Actors and Actresses occasionally stay within genres and become faces that you recognise, but you may be forgiven for NOT seeing double in the British Zombie Genre...

Victoria Hopkins not only plays one of the leads in Zombie Women of Satan but she also featured in Jake Wests bloody brilliant Doghouse but hopefully from the pics you will see exactly why we will forgive you for not recognising her... She is definitely an up and coming genre star that you should be keeping one eye on and is gonna be in a new series Chronicles of Syntax!!!

zone horror

September on Zone Horror (Sky 319, 320 Virgin 170, Freesat 138) We get straight down to business on September 1st at 22:55 when we present Tobe Hooper's Mortuary. Recently widowed Leslie moves her family into a small town mortuary where a malevolent evil lurks underfoot. Starring Dan Byrd and Denise Crosby this is the movie that Hooper proved to all that The Tool Box Murders wasn't just a fluke and that he had retained his form.

Friday the 4th holds the premiere of a gnarly flesh-gnawing shocker. In Zombies a mother and her two young daughters unknowingly move next door to a mine where years earlier many children were buried alive. But now they're back and they're hungry! Also known as Wicked Little Things this is a recent effort that will unnerve even the most hardened horror fan. The jam-eater terror starts at 22:55.

Then on Saturday the 5th at the same time we have another zombie packed premiere, Jake Kennedy's Days Of Darkness. The flesh-eating walking dead have risen and taken over the planet, now a small mismatched group of survivors must take up arms before they're bitten clean off! Do you need any more reason to tune in for this one? You might consider turning vegetarian on Monday 14th for at 22:55 we deliver Dead Meat. When her friend is bitten by a surprisingly sprightly corpse and turns into a flesh muncher, Helena flees for her life. Turns out mad cow disease turns humans into zombies. Who knew?

If you fancy a late night on Wednesday 16th at 2:30 we're showing Lucio Fulci's Zombie Flesh Eater's 2. OK, we all know its also called Zombi 3 and concerns pesky terrorists inadvertently release a chemical that turns those exposed into cannibalistic zombies facing scant resistance from soldiers and teenagers in this Italian horror classic. Do I need to say anything else?

Thursday 24th at 22:50 we give you a movie that's titles tells you everything you need to know! In the titillating terror Zombies! Zombies! Zombies! an experiment goes awry a horde of flesh hungry zombies go on the rampage and face-off against some tasty strippers! A film that does exactly what it says in the tin.

Another late night for your diary is 2:25 on Tuesday 29th when Zone Horror digs up Bruno Mattei's Zombie Creeping Flesh. Also known as Hell Of The Living Dead this classic Italian horror focuses on a centre dedicated to feeding the 3rd world but suffers a chemical calamity by turning their staff into zombies with a hankering for munching on mankind.

As with all TV channels the dates & times are subject to change so please go to www.zonehorror.tv for any last minute changes.

NEKROPOLIS

Meet Matt Richter. Private eye. Zombie.

His mean streets are the city of the dead, the shadowy realm known as Nekropolis. In this first case, Richter must help a delectable half-vampire named Devona recover a legendary artifact known as the Dawnstone, before it's used to destroy Nekropolis itself. That is, if he can survive the myriad horrors that infest the city itself. Pulp and proud, cracking wise like we just dug up the rotting corpse of Dashiell Hammett and put him back to work at his typewriter, Nekropolis is just the first of a trio of fabulous urban fantasies Angry Robot will be bringing you from the mighty Tim Waggoner. Originally published as a limited run novella, the expanded Nekropolis is the definitive version of this massively entertaining series opener. <http://angryrobotbooks.com/>

TIDE OF SOULS BY SIMON BESTWICK

Abaddon Books just keep them coming with another in their Tomes of the Dead Series... This time it's not just the water's rising...

Flash floods devastate Britain. But the terror is just starting, as an army of the living dead emerge from the waters to hunt down the survivors. For Katja, after a year held captive by a brutal vice ring, it's a constant fight to stay alive, but also a chance to win her freedom. McTarn, an ex-soldier haunted by his past, is press-ganged into a mission - to retrieve a scientist from an isolated northern village. When floods cut them off, he has to fight both the walking dead and his own demons to protect his men.

Stiles is the man they sent McTarn to fetch. Although apparently insane, he may be McTarn and Katja's only chance to halt the legions of the dead closing in on their refuge in the bleak Lancashire hills. And if they fail, death will be the least they have to suffer...

ZOMBIES OR VAMPIRES?

Now then, a really bloody (Yes, pun intended) strange and yet inspired set of books has emerged from a company called Skyhorse Publishing and there are two Zombie Books in the series and two Vampire books too, but these are not just your run of the mill horror books they cover topics such as Board Room advancement Zombie-Style and Seduction like a Vampire... So settle down and read on Macduff....

The Zen of the Zombie

Do you struggle out of bed each morning and sway lifelessly across the room, mouth agape, arms hanging slack, murmuring unintelligibly? Well, take heart: you're not alone! But these other staggering, limp, perpetually drowsy folks just happen to be zombies - and it turns out they can teach us a lot about enjoying life. And only here, between the covers of this book, will you learn their secrets to happiness.

Z.E.O. How to Get A(Head) in Business

A guide for any aspiring C.E.O. or even Joe

Lunchbox who wants to move up the ladder, Z.E.O. offers over-worked, underinspired nine-to-five workers inspiration in a source they are sure to relate to: zombies! Learn how zombies can show you how to further a professional career. Become the head zombie in your office by devouring your competition as you storm the barricades to take power in the boardroom. Sure, you might have to crack a few heads and eat a few brains along the way, but that doesn't stop a zombie. Why should it stop you? Your reign as Z.E.O. begins here.

Vampire Seduction Handbook

Women daring and lucky enough to discover romance with a vampire claim to enjoy the most intense love and sex of their lives. But how do you find a vampire of your very own? And just how do you get him interested in ravishing you within an inch of your life? Will the ecstasy of the coupling be worth the inherent risks of vampire love—the risks of drinking your blood, the risks of secrecy, and the risks of betrayal?

The Vampire Survival Guide

Vampires have walked among us for thousands of years. These re-animated corpses survive by draining and consuming the blood of the living, and their threat to humanity cannot be ignored.

Throughout the centuries, professors and peasants have offered their own vampire-fighting tips, but these were often old wives' tales, based more on superstition than on fact. Here, for the first time, is a comprehensive vampire-fighting guide for the twenty-first century.

DR KIM PAFFENROTH IS BACK...

Yet another Zombie based book by the prolific Dr Kim... Sounds bloody amazing... Possibly a bit hardcore but well worth checking out like his other titles... Here's the synopsis for you...

For seventeen years of his life, the whereabouts of the medieval Italian poet Dante Alighieri is unknown to modern scholars. All we know is that during this time, he traveled as an exile across Europe, while working on his epic poem, The Divine Comedy. In his masterpiece he describes a journey through the three realms of the afterlife. The volume describing hell, Inferno, is the most famous of the three.

Valley of the Dead is the real story behind Inferno. In his wanderings, Dante stumbles on a zombie infestation, and the things he sees there - people being devoured, burned alive, boiled in pitch, torn apart by dogs, eviscerated, impaled, crucified, etc. - become the basis of all the horrors he describes in Inferno. Afraid to be labeled a madman, Dante made the terrors he witnessed into a more "believable" account of an otherworldly adventure with demons and mythological monsters, but now the real story can finally be told.

Yes I know its not about zombies, but with a premise as surreal as this one, we thought you should know about it... In north-east England, a monster has arisen. A vampire beast is stalking the Yorkshire moors, mutilating and destroying everything in its path. The vampire elders realise that the Firmamentum has cast its shadow on the world once more—a phenomenon which happens every few millennia, where a human and a vampire are born ultimately powerful and destined to oppose each other... Sid Tillsley is a forty-six year old benefit-fraudster from Middlesbrough. He's an overweight alcoholic, and also sexist, homophobic and a lazy git. But one thing sets him apart from his northern brethren; he can kill vampires with a single punch.

Now, as you can imagine, killing a vampire with a big haymaker is pretty amazing. After all, they are big hard bastards who can regenerate and stuff, and if anyone could kill them, Dracula would never have lived up to his tough-guy persona. So, when Sid inadvertently kills a vampire, whom he wrongly suspects as being a homosexual dogger trying it on with him, the whole vampire world is thrown into a state of shock. Suddenly, and very reluctantly, Sid finds himself the centre of human and vampire attention. Some want to kill him, but others believe him to be the Bellator; the one to fight the vampire beast.

That's all well and good, but Sid just wants to get pissed down the pub with his mates, and, maybe, just maybe, end his two year drought with the ladies. Besides, Sid has more important things to worry about. The benefit office are on to him, and, if they see him scrapping, they'll know that his bad back and dodgy heart are all a load of bollocks!

The Great Right Hope is the first in the series of the Sid Tillsley Chronicles. The Great Right Hope will be available as a paperback from all good book stockists from the 1st Aug, 2009.
