DAY OF THE UNDEAD

THE PHOENIX ARTS CENTRE, LEICESTER, NOVEMBER 1ST

THE UKS PREMIERE ZOMBIE EVENT, 12 HOURS OF ZOMBIE FILMS AND EVENTS

Leicester will once again be a hot bed of Zombie activity this Halloween when the "Day of the Undead" returns for its second outing, this time as part of the FAROUT Film Festival weekend... We've upped the stakes to give you a 12 hour marathon of brain eating treats this year including the UK Premiere of "Last of the Living."

As well as brilliant films, a team of make up artists will be on hand to make you one of the living dead, money raised will be going to charity, a caricaturist will be able to give you a permanent reminder of your Day of the Undead and FAB Press will be here with a trade stall full to the brim with their books, DVDs and T-shirts. There's an ALL DAY BAR and food available, the Best Dressed Zombie Competition, so try and become Terror4funs 'Zombie of the Year 2008!'

Night of the Living Dead Dir: George Romero. USA 1968.
12noon Happy 40th birthday - Night of the Living Dead, one of the greatest, literally groundbreaking horror films of all time! Full of powerful images that have entered our culture, refresh yourself in its sheer, brilliance.

Zombie Short Film Competition Dirs: Various
2.00pm A compilation of the best recent short zombie films in various disguises - from funny to deadly serious. You will be choosing "The Best Short Zombie Film 2008"

Hell's Ground (Zibahkhana) Dir: Omar Khan. Pakistan 2007
4.00pm The first (and probably the last) Pakistani zombie movie, Hell's Ground offers up an astonishingly feverish gore-count as a group of teens head off to where they were told not to go and duly feel the gory consequences.

Zombie Strippers Dir: Jay Lee. USA 2008.
6.00pm Jena Jameson & Robert Englund... Stripper Kat has become a fan of flesh-eating far beyond the call of her profession. Necrophilia ousts lap-dancing in the horny customer department as "teeth on meat" takes on a whole other meaning. "Contains sexualised nudity and strong, bloody, violence" BBFC.

Return of the Living Dead Dir: Dan O'Bannon. USA 1985
8.15pm Rarely screened, this mid-80s classic earns more than its fair share of genre blood, guts, and sexy women.

UK PREMIER. Last of the Living UK PREMIER.
 Dir: Logan McMillan. New Zealand 2008.
10.15pm For ticket details check the Phoenix website... A highly contagious virus has turned most of the world into brain-hungry zombies. But in New Zealand there's still three blokes and a woman but can they save the world? Smart, funny, and ridiculously believable. A perfect end to 12 hours of Death.

There's Zombie Prizes to be won all day and the first 250 people will all receive Zombie Lucky Bags. This year we are delighted to be sponsored by CAPCOM's up & coming game Dead Rising 'Chop Till You Drop' and we have had also had prizes supplied by Abaddon Books, The Monster Boutique and Revolver Entertainment...

See you in November...

'Day Of The Undead' Day Pass - ONLY £20. Single films - £5.50/£4.50.

To book your tickets and for details of the other FAROUT films go to

WHERE AND WHEN TO ZOMBIE WALK!

October 26, 2008.

For more details about each walk simply
Click the links on our diary page.

London Zombie Walk

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the release of Night of the Living Dead, a zombie gathering is happening in Central London in October... A charity fundraising horror event. We will be supporting St Mungo's, the largest homeless charity in London. <http://www.mungos.org/> The event itself is free of charge of course, but all we ask is that you remember those less fortunate. We will be collecting money for St Mungo's on the day - alternatively, you can donate online at the official WZD: London Justgiving page.

Blackpool Zombiewalk

11am - Blackpool Central Library, Queen Street opens. Get there early for: Signing-in desk (Zombie's MUST sign in or they won't be counted for the record attempt!!) Zombie make up - there will be some make up specialists in the library on the day (their availability will be limited though!) Don't forget to bring your food donations! Dried pasta, rice or tinned fish with at least 6 months on the expiry date (food can also be donated at "Paranoia" on Topping Street from now until the walk) The library building must be vacated at 1.55pm and all zombies are to gather outside ready to commence the walk (and no doubt some photographs) 2pm - Walk to begin from Blackpool Central Library, Queen Street.

Worcester Zombiewalk:

Where is the Zombie Walk being held? The sign in and congregation point is outside VIDEODROME, Broad Street, Worcester. How Do I Get Involved? Everyone, no matter how young, old or living impaired, can take part. First off let us know you want to take part. There will be flyers handed out around the city and are available from Videodrome. Fill one in and return it to Videodrome.

If you want to find out more other WZD Zombiewalks from around the world then go to...

Competition Time

Despite their wildly different working styles, Grace and John manage to chronicle the hopes and dreams of four fascinating subjects: IVAN, a convenience-store clerk who longs for a career in publishing; LISA, a florist trying to recover her lost memories; JUDY, a hopeless romantic who learns to accept her true nature; and JOEL (pronounced "Ho-El"), a committed political activist striving for zombie rights. As Grace strives to get to know the zombies "on their own terms," John is eager to uncover their darker side and rallies to get the crew permission to shoot at a three-day, zombies-only retreat called Live Dead where the documentary takes an unexpected - and dangerous - turn. What transpires there is beyond anything the filmmakers could imagine, as they are forced to re-evaluate their ideas about tolerance, identity politics and the future of the human race. BBC ZOMBIES

My name is Bryony Matthewman, & I'm making a zombie film. I live in London & work as a freelance graphic designer.... so why am I trying to make a zombie film? Well, I for the last two years I've made lots of Youtube videos under the name Paperlilies.

These are mainly sketch comedy things, arty videos & video blogs - It's just me, in my room, talking at my computer & editing & posting it myself. I'm one of the most watched people online- in the top 100 on Youtube & in the top 5 in the UK. I've met thousands of people through it, from all over the world, some of whom have become great friends & collaborators on joint projects. So I had the idea: why not try & do something that utilises all the various skills that these people have?

I mean loads of my friends are really talented, but how to best use those skills? Well, lots of us make little films online, so why not make a big, feature length film together? & then I thought "What kind of a film?" Well, it would need to be something that wouldn't suffer from having a low budget. It would be nice if it made some sort of social point & it would also be nice if it used loads of extras, so that anyone who wanted to star in it could.

What sort of film fits that bill? A Zombie Film.

(Also, zombie films have the added bonus of being great fun to watch.) So I'm going to make a zombie movie with people from the internet, wherever they are in the world, whoever they are.

It's going to be made from scratch, with pretty much no budget. The plan is that anyone who wants to be involved, can be involved - from small scale 'video blog' type scenes which people can send in from around the world, to huge scale 'zombie walks' through international cities, people can be in the film, or help write, direct, film & edit the movie. I'm going to try to finish it by Halloween 08 - it's a scary challenge. Since the start of this project I've plunged head first into the world of zombies. I've met brilliant people like Zombie Ed; I've been made up by Paul Ewen & Stuart Conran; I've seen the majestic craziness that is Terror4funs ZombieFest close hand & of course, I've watched tonnes of Zombie films. If you want to get involved you can go to the project's website: <http://internetzombiemovie.blogspot.com/> Finally, the BBC decided it would be interesting to follow me around. They are making two webisodes a week that follow what I'm up to.

These can be watched at bbc.co.uk/zombies & at the end, they'll show a programme all about it on BBC3.

DEAD MOON RISING

Fangorias Horror DVD of the Month (May 2008)

A mysterious disease overtakes the world, and the infected develop a hankering for human flesh. Jim and his fellow Cheap-skate Car Rental clerks are oblivious to the changes going on right outside their door until it literally gets right in their faces. Jim struggles with disgruntled customers, hordes of cannibals, the barely legal April, his certifiable ex-girlfriend Vix (the sexy "Terminatrix"), reconciling issues with his brother, an aversion to guns, and the "pants thing." Can Jim pull it together and rally Louisville's remaining bike gangs and defeat the infected hordes? Maybe with the help of a 1000 round per minute machine gun...DEAD MOON RISING features an ensemble cast of 14, 600 choppers, twelve hundred extras, and contains the "World's Largest Zombie Scene." Girls, ghouls, and guns, what else do you need for a good time?

"This zombie gut-muncher promises to be much more thoughtful than recent low-budget zombie fare..." Chris Haberman, Fangoria

OCTOBER ON ZONE HORROR

SKY 319, 320 VIRGIN 170 AND FREESAT 138

zone horror

Dan O'Bannon directs the cult zombie classic The Return of the Living Dead on October 2nd at 00:30. This cult favourite is all about two hapless warehouse workers who unwittingly release a deadly vapour and awaken a putrid terror from the grave, ravenous for tasty mortals! What else can I say about this amazing movie? Well maybe that it's also one of the funniest zombie movies I've ever seen!

A flesh eating family member takes centre stage on October 6th in the movie Serum at 02:40. A scientist cracks under the pressure to perfect his 'cure all' serum and recklessly begins human trials with horrifying consequences as his nephew is transformed into a flesh-eating monster. Starring David H. Hickey, Derek Phillips, Dennis O'Neill and Lizabeth Cardenas this one movie that might have slipped under your undead radar so check it out.

Another late night gorefest is Awaken the Dead which hits the screen at 02:20 on October 9th. This rip-roaring zombie flick from 2007 is all about a reformed hitman-turned-priest and a reclusive ex-prostitute bunker down in a safe house when the world around them is infected by a zombie virus. Directed by Jeff Brookshire this has plenty of blood on show to reward those who have decided to have a late night.

At 00:45 on October 19th Bruce Boxleitner meets up with some very strange creatures in Legion of the Dead. Molly, a student of Egyptology, goes tête-à-tête with queen Ankh-tet, an ancient mummy of incredible power with a world to rule and souls to devour! If you enjoy the dead wrapped up also tune in for 7 Mummies which is on October 21st at 21:00 Wednesday October 22nd is a date for your diaries when Zone Horror proudly brings you Zombie Creeping Flesh. Also known as Hell of the Living Dead this classic Italian gut-cruncher from Bruno Mattei is one of those zombie movies that everyone needs to catch once in a lifetime. A centre dedicated to feeding the 3rd world suffers a chemical calamity turning their staff into zombies with a hankering for munching on mankind. Gruesome and shocking this is one of the zombie movies of the month. The flesh starts to creep at 02:30.

Jean Rollins Zombie Lake on October 26th at 02:45 is a fine euro horror. A small French village is terrorised by reanimated Nazi soldiers whose zombified cadavers shuffle ashore from their watery grave to chomp on some finest French cuisine - the people! Truly a classic of the genre this is another euro effort that really tried to do something different with the genre.

Oasis of the Zombies, a movie from Jess Franco is a real oddity of the undead genre and rounds off our zombie movies for the month. Treasure hunters determined to track down some lost Nazi gold uncover a squadron of long-dead, yet very hungry, brain-munching German soldiers bent on protecting their hoard. This is a fine companion to Zombie Lake and is on October 27th at 02:40.

As with all TV channels the dates and times are subject to change so please go to www.zonehorror.tv for any last minute changes.

YES, THAT'S RIGHT! NINJA ZOMBIES

What if you found your one true love only to find their hand was promised to the undead ???

NINJA ZOMBIES is a new action comedy/horror graphic novel and upcoming film that asks that question in the wacky vein of cult hit "Shaun of the Dead". At the moment Ninja Zombies is being adapted into a graphic novel by Stephen Stern who did "War of the Worlds" and "Beowulf" GNs which were released and promoted with the Spielberg and Zemeckis movies of the same name.

The NINJA ZOMBIES mixed multimedia presentation (www.ninjazombiesmovie.com) uniquely features comic book pages that "come to life" into live action footage.

ZOMBIE FICTION IS ALIVE AND WELL...

Competition Time

The TOMES OF THE DEAD are a series of book published by Abaddon.

It is a collection of some of the very best eyeball popping, gut munching, zombie fiction around, groaning with horror and excitement. Each book will explore the zombie genre in new and thrilling ways. Join us in these worlds of the dead and remember to leave your sanity by the door!

TOMES OF THE DEAD: THE WORDS OF THEIR ROARING by Matthew Smith

London - a city overrun by the zombie hordes. Most of the human survivors live from day to day, scraping together an existence amongst the ruins, avoiding the shambling, flesh-hungry undead that stalk the streets. But for others the situation is an opportunity, a chance to establish a powerbase within the capital now that all authority has virtually collapsed. For gang lord Harry Flowers, the plague is his chance to finally rule the city unopposed. Operating out of his well-protected mansion on London's outskirts, Flowers sees a chance to use the zombies and the havoc they wreak for his own ends. The way he sees it, the ghouls aren't going to be around forever, and when he re-establishes a functioning society, it's going to be on his own terms. All he needs is a way to control the dead. But Flowers is not the only one with designs on the city...

UK PREMIERE IN LEICESTER

Terror4fun is showing Last of the Living in Leicester as part of the Day of the Undead celebrations... Come along and see the film here first, unless of course you happened to see the premiere in New Zealand.... If you fancy supporting the film and it's Director Logan McMillan then join the Facebook Group...

New Zealand would seem to be the ideal place to ride out the end of the world, at least it is for the survivors in Last of the Living, a shameless zombie-comedy that unleashes a plague of flesh-munching undead onto the Garden City. Post-apocalyptic life is sweet for Christchurch's only survivors, bickering friends Morgan and Ash and unreformed rock'n'roller Johnny. With their pick of well-appointed houses to occupy, free rein at the local Pak-N-Save and ample free time to play videogames or read a good book, life could be worse. In fact, aside from the odd zombie-related problems it's the lack of dating opportunities that most irks our heroes. So when a beautiful young scientist shows up, they're quickly enlisted into her risky scheme to save the world. The scenario provides ample opportunity for director Logan McMillan to showcase a dry Kiwi sense of humour and slick editing skills. This low budget riposte to the likes of Shaun of the Dead supplies infectious fun.
