UKS FIRST SHOWING OF ZOMBIE UNDEAD

This is the big news for November... At the Day of the Undead being held in Leicester on November 28th there will be a sneak preview of 'Zombie Undead' a Leicester made feature film from director Rhys Davies. Set in the aftermath of a terrorist attack, the film features zombies and gore galore and Terror4fun is getting a chance to show it before its official premiere in Early in 2010. The film features some amazing special effects and set pieces and is a creation that will make certain it is added to the Zombie Feature Hall of Fame. Even the trailer for the film got great feedback and so this is definitely one to watch... It features the writing and acting talents of horror guru 'Monster Man' Kris Tearse and the main make up artist and zombie creator was Gavin Pate of Terror4funs 'Gav'n Gore' fame...

MAKE HALLOWEEN HORRIFIC WITH GEORGE A. ROMERO

FILM4 FRIGHTFEST

SIX UK PREMIERES featuring poltergeists, vampires, zombies, mutants, backwoods monsters and an incredible torture show! That's what lies in screaming store for you at FrightFest's annual Halloween extravaganza at the bijou ICA in London's Pall Mall.

We know you're all suffering withdrawal symptoms after the Empire mega-event. And what better nightmares before Christmas could you possibly ask for than this stellar line-up of every hot shock sensation from around the globe currently attracting acclaim and astonishment. PARANORMAL ACTIVITY has been causing such strong word of mouth after it's recent release in America that we had to snap it up so you can see what all the fearsome fuss is about. We just know you are going to like what you see. If you dare.

The same with SURVIVAL OF THE DEAD, the latest blood-freezing allegory from one of FrightFest's best friends, the legendary NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD director George A Romero.

Then there's DAYBREAKERS from the UNDEAD duo of the Spierig Brothers, an eye-boggling Australian sci-fi horror action adventure that garnered great reviews when world premiered in Toronto's Midnight Madness. We were supposed to bring you WRONG TURN 3: LEFT FOR DEAD in August but a change in release schedule meant we had to wait until now to premiere the second sequel in the popular franchise. You'll thrill to the virus horror CARRIERS too, featuring Chris Pine, the new Captain Kirk himself, and the blood-soaked INVITATION ONLY, the first ever slasher movie from Taiwan, one that has changed the face of genre-driven Asian movies. Plus we will be announcing the winner of our 'Horror of Writing' competition that proved so popular in August. So it's that Trick 'R Treat time again. Your chance to meet up with old friends, make new ones and join in the Halloween fun with your scary FrightFest hosts Paul, Ian and Alan once more.

Tickets to see all six films cost £50 and go on sale at 12 noon on Friday 2 October, max 4 tickets per customer from the ICA box office. You can get yours in person, by phone on 020 7930 3647 or on-line here.

BEACH OF THE DEAD III THE BRIGHTON ZOMBIE WALK 2009

Date: October 31st 2009. Halloween at 3pm.
Start point: Brighton Train Station.
Finishing Point: The West Pier, Sea Front.

When there is no more room in Hell, the dead shall walk Brighton. With their arms outstretched, their clothes soaked with blood and various body parts hanging off... The Argus. Voted as The Argus' top event to attend at Halloween, Beach of the Dead III - The Brighton Zombie Walk returns for it's third and biggest year yet.

Almost immediately at 3pm exactly, following the guards alarm whistle. The zombies are then expected to lurch down Queens Road until they reach the clock tower. Sighting the hordes of shoppers on Western Road and around Churchill Square, they are likely to become excited and head down Western Road and onto Churchill Square forecourt.

The ghouls are then expected to head onto West Street and follow it down to King's Road (the seafront). From here the horde are expected to flock towards the West Pier - the place the Zombies eerily congregated every year.

Following the walk we have a very special after event party being held at The Iron Duke. Further information about this shall be available shortly.

Official website: www.beazombie.com
Beach of the Dead III - The Brighton Zombie Walk is proud to release we're in association with Chainsaw Films. www.Chainsawfilms.com

GUEST STAR FOR DAY OF THE UNDEAD

Jasper Bark, author of books, comics and the awesomely undead, 'Way of the Barefoot Zombie' will be at Terror4fun's "Day of the Undead" Festival being held in Leicester on November 28th at the brand new Phoenix Square Centre...

Jasper, the guest star at the event will be signing copies of his book and hopefully accompanied by his Zom-bunnies which have been travelling with him since his first foray into Zombie Fiction and act as prompts, muses and bodyguards all wrapped up into beautiful, but slightly rotting, packages...

If you fancy watching Jaspers advice on dealing with the credit crunch through the medium of the undead then please simply click the links below to find out what this is all about... and don't forget, head to the Day of the Undead to meet him in the flesh...

WASTING AWAY...

SCREAMFEST-Winner, Audience Choice Award for Best Feature

Turning the Zombie film on its head, WASTING AWAY is a hilarious low budget Horror Comedy starring Jose Acevedo, Christopher Antonucci and Betsy Beutler, and featuring a fantastic directorial debut from Matthew Kohlen. Joining him on writing duties is brother Sean Kohlen. Together they have created an instant cult hit that already boasts countless global awards including:

Winner, Audience Choice Award for Best feature – SCREAMFEST

Best Comedy, Best Screenplay and Audience Award – ZOMPIRE FEST.

As far as the plot goes, its not your standard zombie fare.... Zombies, you know 'em, you love 'em, but what do they think of you? In this hilarious twist on the classic Zombie tale, we see the world through Zombie eyes when a barrelful of Toxic Goo transforms four friends into the Walking Dead. Suddenly, unaware of their rotting undeadness, it seems everyone else has gone mad. So they embark on a bumbling quest to find the 'truth' – after all, Zombies are people too!

DAWN OF THE DEAD - BLU RAY

October 2009 sees the highly anticipated Blu-ray release of George A. Romero's classic zombie movie DAWN OF THE DEAD, presented as a special three-disc edition – exclusive to the UK – that represents the ultimate presentation of the film available anywhere in the world. Released just in time for Halloween, this is undoubtedly the horror movie Blu-ray release of the year.

Produced and compiled by Arrow Video with the kind of loving care and attention only the most devoted of zombie aficionados are willing to provide, this must-have three-disc set includes the George A. Romero approved Theatrical Cut of the film in 1080p resolution on Blu-ray, plus the Director's Cut and the Dario Argento Cut on DVD, the latter being made available on DVD as part of this collection for the first time in the UK.

Also included is a host of extras that include the rarely seen "Scream Greats" documentary on the career of special effects wizard Tom Savini, audio commentaries by the filmmakers and, for the first time, French Romero fanatic Nicolas Garreau's fascinating travelogue-come-documentary "Fan Of The Dead". Additionally, exclusively designed packaging features four different sets of artwork from which fans can choose to display the collection, including the little-seen "gasmask" artwork and an all-new, specially commissioned oil painting commemorating this landmark release of the film.

For those unfamiliar with this milestone movie in horror cinema history, here's the plot:

A National Emergency grips the US as the zombie population grows at an inexplicable and alarming rate. Two Philadelphia Police S.W.A.T. officers, a helicopter pilot and his TV reporter girlfriend escape the city and take refuge in an abandoned, suburban shopping mall after securing it following a series of brutal confrontations with the undead. Their survival is threatened when a band of looters leave a door open allowing the zombies access to the mall once more.

The first sequel to George A. Romero's seminal 1968 zombie classic "Night Of The Living Dead", the even more powerful and apocalyptic DAWN OF THE DEAD has been hailed by respected film critic Roger Ebert as "one of the best horror films ever made."

MAYHEM HORROR FILM FESTIVAL

29th October - 1st November 2009

Mayhem is a brand new, weekend long film festival devoted to all things horror, featuring premieres, cult classics, midnight movies, scary television, horror nostalgia, a brilliant fancy dress party and the best new shorts from the future fear makers of tomorrow.

Mayhem is a brand new, weekend long film festival devoted to all things horror, featuring premieres, cult classics, midnight movies, scary television, horror nostalgia, a brilliant fancy dress party.

Mayhem was founded in 2004 by Nottingham-based film-makers Steven Sheil, Chris Cooke and Gareth Howell. The early Mayhem festivals focused around a shorts programme, showcasing terrifying new shorts from an international submissions call.

Mayhem 2009 promises to be bigger and better, with an extra night of screenings, surprise guests and exclusive never been seen before films and the return of our deadly fear filled film quiz.

You can find out more about the festival, latest news or see some brilliant shorts on their site, or you can join them on Facebook, or find out more important details (like booking for example) at Nottingham Broadway's home page.

ZOMBIE TRANSFUSION

The debut feature from writer-director Steven C. Miller, ZOMBIE TRANSFUSION is a gripping contemporary horror movie that recalls the spirit, energy and inventiveness of independent horror classics such as 'Night Of The Living Dead', 'The Texas Chainsaw Massacre' and 'The Last House On The Left'.

Relentlessly violent, shockingly gory, fast-paced and boasting superlative special effects that belie the film's modest budget, this is one zombie movie that horror fans will not want to miss. Marking Steven C. Miller as a horror director to watch, this first part of a proposed ZOMBIE TRANSFUSION trilogy (the second movie is currently in production) is an extraordinary debut, a film that begins with a bang and builds to a thrilling climax that will leave viewers begging for more.

WHAT IS WOODY DOING?

If you don't know the answer then you should get to the cinema and order a front row ticket to see 'Zombieland' and once you have done this you can rejoin the human race...

ZOMBIE WARS

Zombies that are breeding humans for meat does sound like a bit of a tall tale, BUT it happens and from October 19th, you can experience it for yourself on the DVD of Zombie Wars...

The tail of a comet that passed too close to the earth, while others believed that it was simply time for man to atone for thousands of years of sinning.

Whatever the reason, the dead rose from the ground, and they were hungry!

After years of war only small, rebel bands of humans now remain in the war against the undead. When Brian, the leader of a military group, is captured and taken to a nearby farm, he learns of a horrific secret - the zombies are farming groups of humans and harvesting them as food. Now it is up to Brian to organize an uprising to reclaim the freedom of his fellow humans but even when the battle is over, an even more insidious secret awaits in the nearby town...

With non-stop action, hordes of zombies, and some of the most realistic makeup FX seen in years, Zombie Wars has earned its place among the annals of Zombie horror.

Who will win ???

YOU IN THE DOGHOUSE?

Available on:

Blu-ray™ High-Def and DVD on 12 October, 2009

Danny is handling his divorce badly. His mates drag him off for a boys' weekend in the country, but what was supposed to be a simple, boozy get-away quickly goes horribly wrong. The boys find themselves holidaying in a village overrun by psychotic, homicidal women who have fallen victim to an airborne toxin that has turned them into man-hating zombies and seven of these deranged women, each with an axe or two to grind, are stalking the streets. Somewhere out there are dozens more. Maybe hundreds...

The battle of the sexes just got bloody in the outrageously funny comedy-horror, Doghouse, from award-winning director Jake West (Evil Aliens) and starring Danny Dyer (The Football Factory, Severance) and BAFTA Award-winner Noel Clarke (Adulthood, Kidulthood). Doghouse is released on Blu-ray and DVD on the 12 October, 2009, from Sony Pictures Home Entertainment.

The cast boasts a host of other British talent including Stephen Graham (The Damned United, This Is England), Lee Ingleby (Place of Execution), Emil Marwa (East is East), Keith-Lee Castle (Young Dracula), Neil Maskell (Rise of the Footsoldier, The Football Factory), Christina Cole (Lost in Austen), Adele Silva (Emmerdale), Tree Carr (Evil Aliens), Emily Booth (Zone Horror) and Billy Murray (Rise of the Footsoldier, Eastenders).

The DVD and Blu-ray are packed with a host of bonus material including hysterically funny bloopers, deleted scenes, an audio commentary and a Making Of feature.

ONE DATE, TWO ICONS

October 26th, 2009, this is a date that every horror fan should be looking forward to... Not just cause its to close to Halloween, but because this is the date that not one, but two new horror icons come to DVD... The films in question are the highly praised 'The Hills Run Red' and the long awaited 'Trick r' Treat' both of which bring unforgettable characters to the small screen... With the former introducing us to Babyface and the latter to Sam...

THE HILLS RUN RED

You heard the story. The one about the goriest, bloodiest splatter fest ever, the one made in the '80s but mysteriously lost. Flash forward to now: Young fright fans search for the secret location where the movie was shot, hoping to find the film. What they find is that the mysterious slasher flick is more than a movie. It's real. And they're its newest stars. Wait, Babyface is just a character from the movie, right? Wrong. He's alive. He's waiting. And he's thrilled to meet fans who will die – slowly, gruesomely, shockingly – for his art. Roll camera!

TRICK 'R TREAT

In the tradition of Creepshow and Tales from the Crypt comes five interwoven tales set on Halloween night: a suburban couple learns the dangers of blowing out a jack-o-lantern before midnight, a high school principal moonlights as a vicious serial killer, a young virgin whose quest for that someone special takes a gruesome turn, a group of teens carry out a cruel prank with disastrous consequences, and a cantankerous old man battles a mischievous trick-or-treating demon.

Competition Time

To Win a copies of these movies on DVD, answer the simple, but related questions on the back of this issue of the Zombie Times E-Zine...
2 prizes, 1 of each film !!!!

YORK Zombiewalk

The gathering spot for the York Zombie Walk is the paved area on Kings Staith. If you're from York, this is near the Lowther and Kings Arms. We will be gathering there from 12noon on the 31st of October. There will be time to register with the event organisers, as well as sort out make up and cover yourself in yummy blood and gore. We will be setting off on our jolly travels at 1pm. We loiter around Cliffords Tower and the city centre fountain for a while, before moving into the Museum Gardens where zombies can lurk around for as long as they like. The walk will take a little over an hour and then you can frolic / devour brains to your hearts content in the Gardens. <http://howtosurvivezombieapocalypse.co.uk/#!/york-zombie-walk/4536124493>
