makeup artists, book signings, a pile of retro video games consoles, the Dead Rising '3 Minute Zombie Killing Challenge' and loads more we needed 13 hours to fit all of this into the event...

The latest news we have is that there will now be Zombie Cupcakes for sale for people with a sweeter tooth, Shock Horror magazine will be at the event so you can see their magazine in the flesh and the charity we are supporting this year is 'Help for Heroes...'

Hobgoblin Beer is now supporting the event, not only by having a £2.50 a pint offer on at the bar, but they are also providing loads of gifts for the Goodie Bags and Prizes for the various competitions throughout the day...

If you do not yet have your Day Passes or Individual Film Tickets then head to www.phoenix.org.uk and on the front page you will find your way to the 'Day of The Undead' links. The day passes are only £25 for the entire event, so book now to avoid disappointment.

With only a couple of weeks before the high point of the UKs Zombie Calendar, Phoenix Square in Leicester is getting ready for an influx of Gore-soaked zombie fans at the Day of the Undead, Yes, its almost time for the 5th UK Festival of Zombie Culture.

With 13 hours of films, two of which are UK premieres, plus a whole tonne of short films,

WILD WEST WEB ZOMBIES NEED YOUR HELP!

The Good, The Bad & The Undead!
A western tale with a twist!

This is a proposal for a web based zombie series that from the teaser trailer, looks like it does need our support to make this happen...

A drifter who stumbles upon the silver mining town of Romero, finds himself thrown into a situation even the most hardened warrior of the west has never faced. He must team up with the remaining survivors of the town to fend off the hordes of the undead and work together to escape the growing zombie menace.

<http://www.indiegogo.com/The-Good-The-Bad-and-the-Undead>

Money raised for the pilot will go towards creating the best cinematic experience possible, putting together a crack shot crew, gathering costume and props, and most importantly the location. Additionally it will be getting a dedicated sound team and a great cinematographer to crank this project up to 11.

FIND A HOBGOBLIN IN YOUR GOODIE BAG?

At the UK Festival of Zombie Culture, not only will there be Goodie Bags at the event but the event is now being supported by 'The Unofficial Beer of Halloween.' The Beer will be only £2.50 a pint but there will be goodies and prizes provided by them for everyone!

DEADHEADS... SEE IT ON NOVEMBER 19TH!

Deadheads, one of the stand out films of this years Film4 Frightfest, is being shown at the UK Festival of Zombie Culture, yes at this years, Day of the Undead.

This horror-meets-comedy-meets-action-adventure follows two zombie slackers, Mike and Brent, who find themselves surprisingly reborn from the dead during a disastrous zombie outbreak. After discovering an engagement ring in his coat pocket, Mike enlists his new found undead pal's help to find Mike's lost love. With the aid of the puppy-like but hungry —Cheesell and Vietnam Vet Cliff, these two reformed flesh-eaters hitchhike across the country as they are pursued by a team of zombie killing bounty hunters and a ruthless company with its own terminal agenda.

Two slackers, Mike and Brent, find themselves reborn as part of a marauding zombie horde. Only, unlike their fellow flesh-eaters, Mike and Brent have a taste for beer, not humans. Unsure what caused him to die in the first place, Mike discovers an engagement ring in his pocket and realizes that his untimely death prevented him from proposing to the love of his life. Determined to remember what happened, and reunite with his love, Mike and Brent begin a cross-country road trip. It soon becomes apparent that something sinister is afoot as zombie-killing bounty hunters chase Mike and Brent. As they avoid capture, Mike and Brent are joined by Cheese, a lovable dim-witted zombie who becomes their sidekick and bouncer.

Along the way Cliff, a grizzled Vietnam Vet on a love quest of his own, picks up the hitchhiking trio. Cliff drives them to Michigan where he dies before he is able to spread his wife's ashes in Lake Michigan. The boys finish Cliff's mission, then head to the last place Mike remembers--his old apartment. There, Mike recalls his demise at the hands of his girlfriend's father, an evil entrepreneur with a brief case full of dark secrets including reanimation technology. Back in his hometown, Mike learns he is just in time to attend his 10-year high school reunion. Disguised as the school mascot, Mike spends some time with the love of his life, Ellie. Just as he is about to reveal himself, bounty hunters attack the school. Mike and Brent escape, thanks to a heroic sacrifice by Cheese.

With the bounty hunters closing in, and time running out, Mike and Brent drive to Ellie's house. It appears that their last ditch attempt will be thwarted, but when Mike admits his feelings to Ellie and tells her the truth, lover conquers all.

The UK DVD will be released in January 2012.

EAT.MY.BRAINS IS HORROR!

Eatmybrains is a Horror / Cult / Indie film site for all you brain-and-entrails-starved horror fans.

Eatmybrains began on-set of British zombie film Shaun of the Dead in the Summer of 2003. A hundred zombie extras descended on New Cross, London, to help film an exterior shot for the film. Strangely for the UK, the sun shone brightly that day, so instead of filming us 'free' zombies began chatting about the horror films, banned movies, books we owned, director's we liked, the usual splt-yak, and from there the idea of Zombie Club was born.

Initially built to spread the word of Zombie Club to the masses, the site grew and grew in scope, and finally, after much debating about names (deadwalking.com was also a favourite) and scratching heads of design and php coding, www.eatmybrains.com received a soft-launch in early April 2004.

Over the last few years we've done our best to provide you with as much cult and horror film news and reviews and possible, fitting writing in as often as we can around day jobs, girlfriends, wives, kids, and other commitments. Our aim is to continue to the best of our ability, in our pursuit of making eatmybrains.com a comprehensive guide to online horror films, and are currently seeking like-minded people to help us in this project. If you like what you see so far, or if you have a review you would like to send in for us to publish, or even some juicy gossip or some feature ideas, please let us know through the contact us link.

HELP IN ALIVE NEEDS YOUR HELP!

'Help! I'm Alive...' is an independent web series to be shot in the San Francisco Bay Area. As an indie project we have utilized IndieGoGo to help us raise production costs via the internet in an effort to maintain the independent nature of the show.

Taking elements from sci-fi, horror, drama, action and even comedy, 'Help! I'm Alive...' has something for everybody. Horror fans will enjoy the zombie element while sci-fi fans will gravitate towards the post-apocalyptic aspect as well as the science of the show. Interwoven into the series are moments of humor to break up the intense drama and stress of the storyline and of course action to keep everyone on their toes.

Our goal is to raise enough money to fund the pilot episode, a roughly 30 minute introduction into the world of 'Help! I'm Alive...' that will generate many questions, making viewers anxious for the next episode.

INCIDENTE ARGENTINIAN UNDEAD

ONE TO WATCH OUT FOR !!!

Starring: Juan Manuel Rodil & Melisa Fernandez

Director: Mariano Cattaneo

Three years ago an employee at the Nacan factory killed 16 workers and himself. A special police division could find no reason for the mass-murder and labelled the case "Incidente" (the name Argentinian Police use for cases with no logical or reasonable explanation).

Journalist Romina Salustik and her cameraman, Christian, were hired to make a documentary about the murders, reconstructing what happened that day. They returned to the factory with their crew, along with a specialist and a priest, only to never be seen alive again. This film is the very dark & disturbing unfinished documentary tape recovered from the scene by the police.

LONDON'S LEARNING AS ZOMBIOLOGIST LECTURES

Zombie Science 1Z, the acclaimed spoof lecture on the real science behind the undead, is coming to the Capital this November as part of the London Horror Festival.

During the lecture Doctor Austin, head of the Zombie Institute for Theoretical Studies, puts forward his controversial theories on what a real life zombie would be like, the cause of such a disease and importantly how to prevent, cure and contain it.

"Because of movie's the public believe that to stop a zombie you bash its head in," Doctor Austin explained, "but zombies have a serious illness and we should try treatment first. Obviously if that doesn't work we will then bash their heads in."

Supported by the Wellcome Trust & University of Glasgow, Zombie Science 1Z is designed to educate, entertain and inspire teenage and adult audiences about Zombiology & other biological sciences. The extraordinary lecture has visited secondary schools and both Science & Comedy festivals since the start of February.

Doctor Austin said, "Over 9,000 people have attended one of our 120+ lectures so far. We're proud our great nation is becoming a world leader in the field of Zombiology, and now we're bringing our unusual education to the biggest city in the UK."

Ensuring the science is deadly accurate are a team of scientists including: Dr. Kevin O'Dell, Senior Lecturer in Molecular Genetics at the University of Glasgow and Dr. Katie White, a research associate at the University of Glasgow with PhD in Cardiovascular Gene Therapy.

The accompanying book for the show has been published by Severed Press. Zombie Science 1Z - The Textbook is available now on Amazon and in all good bookshops.

Zombie Fact: In your brain the cerebellum helps regulate movement, an area that is subdued when you drink alcohol causing you to stumble around. We believe a zombie too would have damage to this area resulting in their trademark drunken stagger.

Zombie Fact: Cannabis affects users' brains giving them the munchies, an unending desire to consume food. This is scientifically called hyperphagia and we believe that zombies get this too, explaining why they continually consume.

About Doctor Austin:

Doctor Austin ZITS BSz MSz DPep is Scotland's leading expert in Zombiism and Head of ZITS. He holds a Masters in Zombiology, a Bachelors of Zombotany, and a Doctorate of Pepper.

Doctor Austin is also Zombiologist Royal to Her Majesty the Queen of England. www.zombiescience.co.uk

HOLLYWOOD STARS TO BE IN INDIE UK ZOMBIE FILM!!!

THE ZOMBIE KING !!!

Edward Furlong and Corey Feldman

The Zombie King: 7 Souls, & Steps, 7 Days to Hell!

Northern Girl Productions are proud to announce that Edward Furlong and Corey Feldman will be joining the cast of 'The Zombie King' to both be in their first UK independent feature film.

Edward will be taking on the role of Samuel Peters (The Zombie King) and Corey will be taking the role of Kalfu the God of Malevolence. These characters have an interesting twist to a zombie film. A film with a blend of comedy, action, nail biting tension, which will appeal to horror fans and zombie lovers alike....

Edward shot to fame in 1991 for his role in Terminator 2: Judgement day as John Connor, this role saw him win an 'MTV Movie Award' for 'Best Break Through Role.' Along with Terminator 2 Edward is best known for his roles in 'American History X' and 'Pecker'.

Corey shot to fame in the 1980's and is best known for roles in Hollywood films, Friday the 13th: the final chapter, The Goonies, Stand By Me and The Lost Boys.

November 2011, EDWARD FURLONG and COREY FELDMAN will be in the UK filming their roles in 'THE ZOMBIE KING', Northern Girl Productions Ltd first film as a company, produced by Rebecca-Claire Evans, Jennifer Chippindale and Directed by Aidan Belizaire.

Along with Edward and Corey the cast is packed with strong collaborative UK names including Giles Alderson (The Torment and Night Junkies), George McCluskey (Frontman), Patrick Toomey (The Curse of the King Tut's Tomb), Samuel Barnet (History Boys), Rebecca-Claire Evans (The Dinner Party), Jennifer Chippindale, Anabel Barnston (Coming of Age) and Jay Sutherland (Pulp), just to name a few, this is a film surely not to be missed.

The Plot of the Film...

Samuel Peters (Edward Furlong) once an ordinary man, dabbles within the laws of voodoo to bring his wife back from the grave, he soon encounters the God of malevolence 'Kalfu' (Corey Feldman), where he makes a pact with him to destroy the underworld and bring chaos to earth; in return he will become 'The Zombie King' and walk the earth for eternity with his belated wife.

Seven days before the rise of the Dark Moon, Samuel Peters (The Zombie King) calls upon Kalfu to raise the dead of the recently departed, where their souls must be held on earth for seven days. With the ever growing horde of zombies, they begin to completely wipe out a countryside town. Once the Government get wind of what is going on, they set a perimeter around the town area and employ a shoot on sight policy. Trapped within the town, the locals and unlikely bunch of misfits fight for their lives, and the remaining humans soon realise that they have to unite in order to survive. Seeking sanctuary in a local church, they discover a bizarre disturbed priest where he gives them the knowledge of 'The Zombie King'. Can our hero's unravel the clues in time and survive or will The Zombie King and his horde of zombies rise on the night of the dark moon?

For further information or if you are interested in being an extra in the film please contact Rebecca@thezombiekingfilm.co.uk and Jennifer@thezombiekingfilm.co.uk

WAR AGAINST THE WALKING DEAD

THE 5TH ANNUAL UK
FESTIVAL OF ZOMBIE CULTURE
 SATURDAY, 19TH NOVEMBER, 2011

A follow up book to the THE OFFICIAL ZOMBIE HANDBOOK (UK): The Ministry of Zombies by Sean T Page. Sean T Page will be one of the guest authors at the UK Festival of Zombie Culture, November 19th in Leicester. Tickets available from www.phoenix.org.uk

More than 63% of people now believe that there will be a global zombie apocalypse before 2050...

So, you've got your survival guide, you've lived through the first chaotic months of the crisis, what next?

Employing real science and pioneering field work, War against the Walking Dead provides a complete blueprint for taking back your country from the rotting clutches of the dead after a zombie apocalypse.

* Arm yourself with the latest scientific insight from the world's leading zombiologists including startling new analysis on why survivors must fight back within the first years of the crisis or risk being crushed by unstoppable 'meta-hordes' of the walking dead.

* A glimpse inside the mind of the zombie using a team of top psychics - what do the walking dead think about? What lessons can we learn to help us defeat this pervading menace?

* Detailed guidelines on how to galvanise a band of scared survivors into a fighting force capable of defeating the zombies and dealing with emerging groups such as end of the world cults, raiders and even cannibals!

* A strategic plan on how to deploy anti-zombie forces including training your new militia, creating fleets of foraging ships and a microlight air force.

* Features insights from real zombie fighting organisations across the world, from America to the Philippines, Australia to China - the experts offer advice in every aspect of fighting the walking dead.

Packed with crucial zombie war information and advice, from how to build a city of the living in a land of the dead to tactics on how to use a survivor army to liberate your country from the zombies - War against the Walking Dead may be humanity's last chance. Remember, dying is not an option !

Reviews

'I'm telling you, if zombies are your thing, you absolutely cannot go wrong with this book. And even if you aren't "into" zombies, you'll still learn a great deal about what it will take to form new communities, post-collapse.' -- Survival Weekly - Sept 2011

'It's all you need to fight back, at that time it will be Sun Tsu's 'Art of War' for the zompocalypse.' -- zombiejunkie- Oct 2011

'I enjoyed this and will certainly keep it on my shelf as THE definitive reference book when the Apocalypse hits. For anyone who would like to have all the information to survive and overcome the Zombie Apocalypse in one easy to read volume - look no further'. -- Wistfulskimmie's Book Review Blog - Oct 2011

'Taking cues from both common zombie sense and the great military minds of history, he has lain out a plan for the continued survival of our species - a true blueprint for a war against the walking dead.' -- Eric S. Brown, best-selling author of the BigFoot War series, Season of Rot, Season of Death and many more. - Aug 2011

SURVIVING THE ZOMBIE OUTBREAK

Surviving the Zombie Outbreak... The Official Zombie Survival Field Manual...

A pathogen known as the "Vrykolas-Romeros Virus" (VRV) began infecting humans throughout eastern Pennsylvania approximately six weeks prior to the printing of this book.

The VRV kills its host quickly and within moments reanimates the corpse as a "walking dead" creature that is compelled to bite humans and spread the virus. These abominations are now known as "Zombies."

Since the appearance of the VRV, worldwide chaos has ensued. The power grid is down, supplies are finite, and Zombies are roaming the landscape. Government experts are working to find a cure for the VRV, but until they do you must try to survive on your own under desperate circumstances. This official Zombie survival field manual contains vital information to help you stay alive in this unprecedented, hostile environment.

- Locating safe zones
- Assembling a survival kit
- Choosing weapons
- Electing a leader
- Securing a building
- Communicating with survivors
- Dealing with carriers of the virus
- Finding supplies
- Traveling through danger zones
- Re-killing zombies
- And much more

THE WALKING DEAD BOARD GAME

In The Walking Dead Board Game only the strong survive. The weak turn into walkers, and then turn against their former friends!

Based on the hit TV series. Fight your way through zombie-infested Atlanta with your fellow survivors. Grab some weapons to clear a path. Visit destinations like the department store, old folk's home, and the CDC. Find the tools you'll need to live another day. Take on the role of Rick, Andrea, or one of the other hapless survivors and scrounge for sweet weapons like a Shotgun or Crossbow. Keep your eyes open for new allies, but watch your back! Should you fall to the hungry horde of walkers, the game doesn't end. When a player dies and becomes a walker, they leave the world of the living behind and seek out the remaining survivors. Spring surprise attacks on the living, cause the walkers to frenzy, or contaminate the survivor's supplies. Put the bite on your former friends and they'll join you in your pursuit of the living.

Available from Retailers like Forbidden Planet...

DOUBLE DEAD TOMES OF THE DEAD

A Tomes of the Dead Novel by Chuck Wendig
Another Zombie Novel from Abaddon Books

Coburn's been dead now for close to a century, but seeing as how he's a vampire and all, it doesn't much bother him. Or at least it didn't, not until he awoke from a forced five-year slumber to discover that most of human civilization was now dead— but not dead like him, oh no.

of the walking dead cannot sustain him.

Now he's starving. And nocturnal. And more pissed-off than a bee-stung rattlesnake. The vampire not only has to find human survivors (with their sweet, sweet blood), but now he has to transition from predator to protector—after all, a man has to look after his food supply.

Chuck Wendig is a novelist, screenwriter and self-described 'penmonkey'. He sold his first story when he was 18. After working in the computer and role-playing game industries he began scripting TV- and film-projects, including a horror film script which won him a place at the prestigious Sundance Screenwriter Lab 2010. He currently lives in the wilds with a wonderful wife and two very stupid dogs.

See, Coburn likes blood. The rest of the walking dead, they like brains.

He's smart. Them, not so much. But they outnumber him by about a million to one. And the clotted blood

DEAD AGAIN A NOVEL BY GEORGE MAGNUM

The Black Hawk chopper banked a hard turn, rotors thumping, providing a bird's eye view of the burning landscape. Commander Peterson couldn't help wondering what people around the world thought of this apocalypse. Maybe they accepted it as a biological infection. Maybe some believed a curse had descended upon the world, that this was the end of days. Maybe some already realized the inevitable, horrible truth: only the strongest would survive. Within forty eight hours, it had become a global pandemic. There was no explanation. The dead were rising, returning to life, and devouring the living. Commander Peterson, leader of the most elite fighting unit in the U.S. armed forces, was assigned one, last final mission.

Please check out www.georgemagnum.com to learn more about DEAD AGAIN

MORGUE OF THE DEAD BY L.A. TAYLOR

What started off as an experimental drug used to improve the food grown on a local farm, was now the reason behind why the dead were rising and feasting off the living. The small town of Clifton Falls had been caught up in a gruesome battle between good and evil, as the recently deceased stalked their prey. In the space of a few days, the local police force had to battle the strange beings in the hospital, the cemetery, the forest, and finally ending up at the Holiday Village. Before anyone could work out what was happening, humans were falling down and being devoured by the hungry, brain-eating creatures. Could the local Police Chief find a way of eliminating the un-dead before the virus spread into the CITY and BEYOND? www.morgueofthedead.webs.com

THE ZOMBIES THAT ATE THE WORLD

An awesome Graphic Novel, that is well worth checking out, for the art, the humour and the Living Dead by writer Jerry Frissen.

In Los Angeles in the year 2064, the dead have risen and corpses live again, cohabiting among us...well, somewhat. As a zombie apocalypse engulfs America, we follow a group of friends on a their journey to start a little business of their own...zombie catchers!
Written by Jerry Frissen (Lucha Libre, The Tikitis), and illustrated by Guy Davis (B.P.R.D., The Marquis: Inferno), the two creators collaborate here to pay homage to the zombie genre, giving us a hilarious black comedy that will want you starved for more! Collects the first 4 issues of the DDP/Humanoids comics and features a whole new sketchbook section.

THE PRETTY DEAD BY DAVID MARTIN STACK

"Like High Fidelity meets Shaun of the Dead! The Pretty Dead has what every good book should have: snappy dialogue, rock and roll attitude and, of course, zombies! But be warned, once you start reading, you won't want to put it down!" - Amanda Ashby, author of Zombie Queen of Newbury High and Fairy Bad Day
ARE YOU READY TO ROCK? OR ROT?

A mysterious virus threatens to turn everyone into mindless zombies. The infected exhibit early symptoms of extreme conformity. When the virus outbreak hits a small Catholic high school in Louisville, KY, naturally nobody notices.

Blake always dreamed of being in a rock and roll band. His twin sister M. dreamed of saving the world. It looks like they'll both have their chance. On their sixteenth birthday, the twins' father disappears, accused of embezzling millions of dollars to cover gambling debts. In the months of shame and wrenching change that follow their father's disappearance, the twins struggle to deal with the ordinary evils of high school like cliques, detention, and driver's exams, while an extraordinary evil gathers around them.

It turns out it's not just their imaginations - the cool kids really are trying to destroy them. Not to mention

Blake's feelings for his ex-girlfriend - which he thought had long since died and were buried - are coming back big time. But she's into one of his jerk friends, and it's eating him alive. Nevertheless, with three friends and three chords, the siblings form a garage band where they bury their trouble under loads of distortion.

When clues emerge that their father was framed, the band becomes a perfect cover for them to go underground to expose a secret political conspiracy hell-bent on controlling the world. Pursued by ghoulish government agents, infected teachers and classmates, and a rival band of goth-rockers who want to force a deadly battle of the bands, the twins are called to become bigger heroes than just your average Guitar Hero.

STAG NIGHT OF THE DEAD UK RELEASE

Zombie mayhem will be ringing in the New Year as the British zombie comedy STAG NIGHT OF THE DEAD is to get its UK release on 9th January on DVD and iTunes. Set in the wake of a zombie outbreak, when private companies are cashing-in on ways to dispose of the undead, Neil 'Napoleon' Jones' film is about a stag party out for a game of Zomball - like paintball except that you get to shoot zombies.

Dean (the groom) and his bachelor buddies take along Candy, the stripper they've hired for the wild weekend, but the fun soon turns into a game of life and death as the zombies inevitably attack.

Will the groom survive his stag night, and make it to the church on time?

The DVD release includes exclusive behind-the-scenes features, and is available now for pre-order on Amazon: <http://amzn.to/rpma1I>

ZOMBACTER... CENTRE CITY CONTAGION

Zombacter: Center City Contagion by Sean Bingham. The first book in a horrifying new Severed Press series.

This terrifying spin on zombies is a thrill ride of gruesome twists and turns that will leave you on the edge of your seat and forever afraid of the dark. Professor Jake Northrop was on track to build the world's first bio-computer using genetically engineered bacteria when something went terribly wrong. Now that something has just become top of the food chain. He's horrified to learn that his experimental bacterium, Zombacter, turns people into flesh-eating monsters. While most of Professor Northrop's accidental creations are lumbering idiots, some are very different. They can out run you. They can out think you, and they're hungry! With the help of Bill Santini, a homeless, one-armed veteran, and a small group of survivors, the professor must run a gauntlet of ghouls to escape Center City and find a cure for the zombie plague.

THE HORROR-BLE WORLD OF ZOMBIE MAKE UP

TORN ZOMBIE FACE SIMPLE AND CHEAP

Thanks to Make Up Guru STUART BRAY

Halloween is almost upon at time of writing, so I thought it was high time I do a video tutorial to celebrate. With just a few simple materials, this little beauty could be lumbering down your street soon.

Zombie walks, parties and just plain silliness sometimes require an extensive makeup which doesn't cost a lot of money – something more than paint, powder and pus but which does not require a Hollywood (or, more likely, a Watford) FX studio either. Hopefully, this will bridge the gap.

Incidentally, there is a well known design dictum which I first saw pinned to the workshop wall a few years back on a movie we were working on. It had a triangle, and the words "Good – Quick – Cheap" written at each corner. Underneath this it said "Pick two - you can't have all three".

I don't know who came up with that, but it absolutely holds true. If something is required to be good and you want it quick, it inevitably is not cheap. If you want it quick and cheap then it probably wont be very good.

Well this makeup effect is good and cheap, so the price we pay is time. Give yourself a couple of days drying time to make this. The actual labour time is pretty small – I spent probably an hour making this in total – but you will need two days (or a Texan night) to get this fella dried up properly.
