The problem is since the government has cleared out many of the major cities, there are no longer any zombies where they live.

In order for them to get more zombies for fertilizer, they must go on a road trip to the "Danger Zone" where they hope to find and gather as many zombies as possible for their brains. Along the way they get captured by an evil flamboyantly gay Zombie named Alex who has a plot to organize an army of the undead in order to take over the world.

Once they escape his clutches, they team up with Leah Kroker, another lone survivor who has spent the past year of her life since the outbreak tinkering and building things on her farm. She joins the boys and builds the ultimate zombie killing machine in order to help them on their quest.

"Bong of the Dead" is a fun film for anyone who is a fan of blood, guts and comedy! It's a stylistic action / comedy/ horror film that will please all those who enjoyed the classics such as "Dead Alive".

THE ZOMBIE-GEDDON IN CAMBRIDGE?

A flash mob (or flashmob) is a group of people who assemble suddenly in a public place, perform an unusual and sometimes seemingly pointless act for a brief time, and then disperse, often for the purposes of entertainment and/or satire.

Flash mobs are organized via telecommunications, social media, or viral emails. The term, coined in 2003, is generally not applied to events and performances organized for the purposes of politics... (such as protests), commercial advertisement, publicity stunts that involve public relation firms, or paid professionals.

Our aim is to do this at Halloween in Cambridge (Saturday the 29th) with anyone who would like to get involved it would sure as hell be fun!!! And that's the aim it's got to be fun and safe.

There will be 3 stages to this event with exact info becoming available shortly before the actual march so make sure you keep your eyes peeled.

There are a lot of different flash mobs zombie walks etc available on Youtube I suggest you have a look to see what we are trying to aim for. I have changed the event to the Saturday for a few reasons mainly there are always more people in Cambridge and I am sure we will have lots of hungry zombies!! And we want a lot of people to witness the zombie march ... not only that, Saturday is a better day for most people.

So dress as a zombie and hunt for some brains tell your friends (BUT KEEP IT A SECRATE) you can be as original as you like or stick to the classic brain dead zombies. The wilder and more unusual the better.

We are currently looking for some help, so if you think you can help in any areas at all please let us know it would be great to get your ideas and thoughts?

You can follow us on twitter @zombiegeddon_uk or find us on FACEBOOK at:

ROB SACCHETTO SEES DEAD PEOPLE

Rob Sacchetto is a freelance illustrator, painter, and visual artist and is the creator of the popular website

www.zombieportraits.com

The idea of Zombie Portraits came to Sacchetto following a high realism portrait commission. He was working on his Know Your Zombies poster at the same time... So, he decided to combine portraiture and zombies... and thus Zombie Portraits were born. Sacchetto, and others who saw a niche, set Zombie Portraits into motion online. Today, when not working on his own personal projects, orders from Zombieportraits.com keep Sacchetto busy and elbow deep in illustrated gore.

He perfectly captures today's top stars and politicians in their most embarrassing, undead state in his latest book Zombiewood. This gruesome collection of full-colour illustrations exposes Hollywood's flesh-eating side. In this paparazzi-inspired collection of images, the celebrity bad and beautiful are revealed as never before - in their undisguised, zombified existence.

Laugh-out-loud descriptions deliver detailed information on these flesh-feasting personalities, including their favourite eats and secret haunts.

Competition Time

To win a copy of the Zombiewood book then check out the comp inside the back cover.

THE DEAD MUST DIE !!!

"The Dead Must Die" is a new comedy/horror web series set after the inevitable 'Zombie Apocalypse'. There are 7 zombie fuelled episodes, which will be added every Friday for the next 7 weeks. It follows two video game geeks, Steve (Stephen Russell) and other Steve (Jonny Helm) as they navigate through the wild terrain of their long awaited (and often discussed) zombie apocalypse.

Unfortunately, neither of them is really prepared for the reality of the situation...

Through blizzards, anti-zombie hate mobs, sand eating, creepy nameless ninja chicks, crossbows, and moms, our heroes shall venture forth into this new world, where there is only one thing they can be certain of: that the dead must die!

From its beginnings as an in-character Twitter account dealing with the zombie apocalypse, The Dead Must Die has developed into a full grown monster series with the aid of its award winning creator Matthew Snyman and Digital Media Producer Alex Barkaloff (Lionsgate) and of course the lovely folks at DailyMotion.

Each episode has original art designed by a group of select illustrators from around the world, and will be available for download each week.

WHO THE FK IS ADAM MILLARD ?

THE 5TH ANNUAL UK
FESTIVAL OF ZOMBIE CULTURE
SATURDAY, 19TH NOVEMBER, 2011

Adam is going to be heading along to the UK Festival of Zombie Culture in Leicester, so to meet the man behind the madness you should head on down...

Adam Millard was born in Shrewsbury in September 1980, and shortly moved to Wolverhampton. His passion for writing soon became apparent with an old typewriter and an imagination that could only be described as disturbing yet brilliant. His first break came when his Short story 'What's the world coming to?' was published in Edge magazine in 2003. His first novel 'Only in Whispers' was published the following year by Planetree. Two fantasy/comedy novels followed in 2008. Set in the ridiculous realm of Underland "The Ballad of Dax and Yendyll" and "Grimwald the Great" proved that Adam was a versatile writer and not just a horror hack. He then returned to what he did best, gore and suspense, with Dead West. Released in 2011, his zombie-western is a masterclass in horror storytelling. This was followed up by his first anthology, Chasing Nightmares, before Adam wrote a comedy children's zombie novel so that he had something to read to his baby son before bedtime without his wife going mental. A second book in the Dead Series was released in September 2011. Dead Cells, set in a maximum security prison, is a no-holds-barred zombie thriller.

Life for Adam revolves around writing. If he isn't writing, then he is usually found with a book in his hand. He is also a true Metal-head who loves to play the guitar and has an overwhelming collection of music that make his wife's ears bleed. He is a self-professed connoisseur of all films but with a disturbing enthusiasm for everything horror under his skin, quite literally, thanks to his other passion of tattoos and tattooing. Adam's body boasts over 50 tattoos (some of which were inked by himself) with his back being a showcase for all the modern classic horror characters thanks to his brother, Clint's, tattoo skills.

With regard to his own literary heroes, the walls of the Millard household are lined with the likes of Stephen King, Richard Laymon, Dean Koontz, Terry Pratchett, Jack Kerouac and James Patterson to name but a few, however he will read just about anything and is forever bringing home new and old titles for his personal collection.

DON'T FORGET THAT SEAN PAGE WILL ALSO BE AT THE FESTIVAL SIGNING COPIES OF HIS NEW BOOK TOO !!! SEE YOU THERE !!!

THE 5TH ANNUAL UK
FESTIVAL OF ZOMBIE CULTURE
 SATURDAY, 19TH NOVEMBER, 2011

UK PREMIERE

DEAD GENESIS

The UK Premiere of this highly anticipated movie is at the UK Festival of Zombie Culture.

Seven months have passed since the dead took over. Many cities and states have been abandoned and left to die. Several self sufficient hunting groups have been established to take on the threat in a war aptly referred to as the 'War on Dead'.

Jillian Hurst, a former news writer and amateur documentarian, has set out to make a pro-war propaganda film to support the W.O.D. She joins up with a pack of renegade hunters known infamously to North America as 'the deadheads'.

The moral dynamics and hardships of fighting in a war against the undead are told from several different perspectives.

<http://www.deadgenesisthemovie.com/>

FILM4 FRIGHTFEST

Yes, Film4 FrightFest is back after its universally critically acclaimed and much beloved main August event with a Halloween all-nighter to die for. For on Saturday October 29th at the Vue West End from 6.00 pm until dawn it's going to be shock around the clock with six of the must-see genre movies of the moment.

We kick off with BAD MEAT, a unique movie so new, so under-the-radar, so gory, it doesn't even have an imdb listing. Compose yourself because next up is LIVID, thrill to a supernatural fusion of Lucio Fulci and Dario Argento as a dark secret is unlocked on a very unusual treasure hunt.

Tom Six controversial sequel THE HUMAN CENTIPEDE II (FULL SEQUENCE), which was initially banned by the BBFC will now fill the midnight slot. The film will also play as part of our Bristol event. French director Julien Magnat is back with FACES IN THE CROWD, an inventive giallo-style thriller starring Milla Jovovich as the witness to the latest attack of serial killer Tear Jerker Jack.

COLD SWEAT is what would happen if you crossed HOSTEL with THE WAGES OF FEAR as two old men collect teens and pour nitro-glycerine on them so they can't move without blowing themselves up. This is followed by the UK Premiere of THE WATERMEN, a stomach-churning coastal fight for survival starring Jason Mewes of JAY AND SILENT BOB fame facing an inbred menace.

By the time you leave Leicester Square at sun up, you won't have kept much down throughout Film4 FrightFest's six-pack of shock containing as much Halloween midnight madness as you could wish for. Team FrightFest will be your hosts as ever, with the usual surprise extras and guests you have come to expect from the best fest in the West End.

And there's more! The entire Halloween 6 programme (minus LIVID) will be repeated at the Watershed in Bristol on Friday November 4th.

TICKET INFO. Tickets for THE ALL NIGHTER 6 will be available from noon on the 1st of October. To get your ticket pop along to the Vue West End, Leicester Square and you can buy them in person. If you're not London-based you can buy them online. Click this link all will be revealed. (please note that this link will not be live until noon on Saturday, 1 October) Finally, if you can't get along in person and don't want to buy online you can call 08712 240 240.

Zombie Movies on the Horror Channel
October & November 2011
(Sky 319, 320 Virgin 149 and Freesat 138)

In this classic blood-drenched horror from the controversial 'Godfather of Gore' a priest's suicide opens the gates of Hell, paving the way for the dead to rise and slaughter the living.

October

We take you down to Zombie Town on the 19th at 9pm. This corking gut-muncher is set in a remote village where a parasitic plague transforms the population into brain-chomping zombies. Can a group of friends fight off the shuffling undead hoards?

A premiere not to be missed is on Saturday at 10.55pm as Jeffrey Combs resurrects his most famous character in Beyond Re-Animator. In this surreal horror comedy Dr. Herbert West is serving time in prison for his re-animation crimes, but his experiments continue, going Beyond Re-animator and beyond reason!

Classic undead action hits Horror at 11.10pm on the 22nd with the premiere of Hammer's Plague Of Zombies. Introduced by respected journalist Kim Newman it concerns a plague that spreads through a Cornish village. Soon it's discovered that the victims' graves are empty and a deranged Squire dabbling in black magic has an army of zombies! Don't panic if you miss this first showing as you can view it again at 11.50pm on the 31st.

Zombies! Zombies! Zombies! At 10.55pm on the 23rd is a titillating terror with a cast chock-full of hot girls. When an experiment goes awry a horde of flesh hungry zombies go on the rampage and face-off against some tasty strippers. Fun but packed with plenty gore it could have also been called Strippers! Strippers! Do not miss this flesh feast.

Mid-afternoon thrills on the 29th at 4pm with the hilarious comedy Zombie Dearest. A doting husband Gus goes to any lengths to please his wife, even as far as digging up a corpse to do his bidding! Original, funny and inventive this is one movie that will have you laughing aloud one minute then shaking in fear the next. Don't miss it!

If you fancy a late night on the 29th then tune in at 1.45am for Zombies Anonymous. As the recently deceased begin reanimating with their personalities intact, a despised Zombie sub-culture develops and battle lines are drawn! If you lap up the humour of Return of the Living Dead and hunger for the grisly realism of Dawn Of The Dead then this is the gut-muncher for you!

As with all TV channels the dates and times are subject to alteration so please go to www.horrorchannel.co.uk for any last minute changes.

November

Friday the 18th at 00.55am is another date for a late night shocker on Horror, this time its Lucio Fulci's City Of The Living Dead.

LONDON HORROR FESTIVAL

London Horror Festival is London's independent festival of horror in the performing arts. Bringing together a thrilling selection of theatre, comedy, music and performance from across the UK, it seeks to showcase the wide range of talent and imagination which the genre can inspire. The Courtyard Theatre, Hoxton, in collaboration with Theatre of the Damned have developed a programme which reflects the power of the macabre to shock, to move, to titillate and above all to entertain. In its inaugural year the festival contains disturbing adaptations of classic horror fiction, bold new writing which stretches from slapstick to psychodrama, from grisly comedy and the blackest of humour to shocking revivals from across the history of onstage horror. The dead shall rise, the guilty will batten on the innocent and the people in the front rows may leave splattered in gore. With three shows running each evening, and a host of special events to be announced, we hope you'll join us for London's first winter of horror. This year, Halloween is only the beginning.

Featuring the weapons of Zombie

Tools in many images, the 2012: Last Days is a 12-month calendar with standard dates and holidays, plus commemorations of historical events from humanity's darkest hours, and includes a total of 14 images—plus centerfold poster—directed by Proud Ruin's Tayn C. STRANGE ZOMBIES, PART 16

We think it is our friend Matt at the Dia De Los Muertos celebration, but even if you are the living dead you need an earlier night to get rid of those rings round your eyes...

Zombie... Yes...

Mexican... Yes...

Sleep Deprived... Yes...

Strange... Definitely...

Send us more pics of your strange zombies, Mexican or not, we need to see them and see them NOW!!! Pics of zombies on the us, shopping or conversing with Michael Aspell, we want your strange zombie images NOW!!!

GET THE DEAD NOW !!!

Anchor Bay released brand new behind the scenes action from THE DEAD to celebrate its UK DVD release on Oct 10... The Ford Brothers and lead actor Rob Freeman reveal even more candid details of what really happened during the making of their epic African zombie flick.

Producer/Director Howard J. Ford reveals: "Seeing some of this new footage, a lot of which I had no idea was even being shot, takes me right back to the horrors we faced getting it in the can. Everything from my knife-point mugging on the very first day of production to watching my own Brother Jon wither away to a near skeleton with dysentery & severe food poisoning while our lead actor Rob Freeman lay in a local hospital dying of cerebral Malaria.. But now, with the film about to come out, Jon and I are starting to feel a sense of excitement that we haven't felt before and if the release goes the way it looks like it will, we will owe it to those who supported us to get our asses back out to Africa and bring back 'The Dead 2' - whether we survive it or not!!" Shot on locations across Burkina Faso and Ghana, West Africa on 35mm including many never before committed to celluloid locations, THE DEAD is unlike anything horror audiences have ever experienced - an apocalyptic, savage journey to the heart of Africa.

The story is centred around the journey of American Air Force engineer Lieutenant Brian Murphy (ROB FREEMAN), the sole survivor of a plane crash, who has to run the gauntlet across Africa, battling with the living dead. He joins forces with local military man Sergeant Daniel Dembele (PRINCE DAVID OSEI) who is desperately searching for his missing son. They must fight together if they are to survive the flesh-eating horrors of the bush.

CHAOS CAMPUS. SORORITY GIRLS VS. ZOMBIES

Chaos Campus: Sorority Girls vs. Zombies is a pop culture parody comic book series created by B. Alex Thompson that follows three sorority sisters as they fight for survival during a zombie apocalypse. Not much you really need to know. Go in with an open mind. Have fun!

This web-comic updates every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, so mark those calendars! If all goes as planned this web-comic will go on for a little over 12 years. You can make this a reality by regular reading, regular comments, buying ads, and especially by buying the physical copies of the issues.

of the "Chaos Campus" volleyball tournament between partnered sororities Epsilon Alpha Zeta Upsilon and Alpha Zeta Zeta. During the after party zombies decide to crash the festivities! Dead Man on Campus, Part 2 is the conclusion to the series origin! The sorority survivors split into three groups to cover more ground for help forcing Paige, Brittany, and Jamie into a group. The trio are still getting used to each other's quirks and might kill each other before the zombies do!

Zombies have taken over the city and the only hope we have for humanity's survival lies in the hands of the three buxom remaining members of the Epsilon Alpha Zeta Upsilon sorority. <http://chaoscampus.com/intro/>

GEORGE... A ZOMBIE INTERVENTION

Vicious Circle Films, the horror/thriller arm of Breaking Glass Pictures has announced the October 4 DVD release of George: A Zombie Intervention. Starring Peter Stickles (Shortbus), Michelle Tomlinson (Brain Dead) and legendary scream queen Lynn Lowry (The Crazies, Shivers, They Came From Within).

George: A Zombie Intervention is a wickedly funny comedy that takes place in a world where the undead are law-abiding citizens like everyone else.

Addiction can ruin lives, especially when you're a zombie like George. After eating one too many people, George's concerned friends decide it's their job to support him on a journey to recovery.

With the help of Barbra, a professional interventionist, George's best friend Ben, ex-girlfriend Sarah, Sarah's new boyfriend Steve, and George's sister Francine gather at George's house to confront him.

Disaster unfolds as George evades his friends' good intentions while his hunger for flesh grows stronger than ever. When the group decides to take a break from intervening, guests in the house start turning up dead – and eaten – but is George the one to blame, or does someone else in the house have a secret to hide?

Full of deadpan humor and over-the-top gore, director J.T. Seaton's gut-busting feature length debut proves that the first step towards recovery... is admitting that you eat people.

CREATE YOUR OWN EVIL!

Yes, as a follow up to last issues 'Zombie Felties' Book that we featured plenty of other people have got in touch telling us that there other ways of making evil in your own home that does not involves puppy sacrifice or eating brains... This column will end as soon as we stop receiving zombie craft books !!!

WITCH CRAFT WICKED ACCESSORIES, CREEPY CUTE CROCHET ZOMBIES, NINJAS, ROBOTS, AND MORE

One of today's hippest craft trends is amigurumi, Japanese-inspired crochet and knit stuffed dolls that have inspired crafters everywhere to create gaggles of adorable creatures. Most patterns are for little kitties, bears, bunnies, and the like, but here's an offering for those who prefer their cute a little less saccharine. Author Christen Haden combines the infamous cuteness of Japanese crafts with characters more associated with horror flicks, bad action, and sci-fi films. Patterns include zombies, ninjas, Vikings, vampires, aliens, and skeletons, to name just a few. Each of the 30+ patterns is accentuated with hilarious commentary, step-by-step instructions, and photographs of the creatures in their natural environment, so even beginners will be inspired to share in the fun.

SPELLBINDING JEWELLERY, CREEPY-CUTE TOYS AND MORE!

Open this little book of "Witch Craft" for a spellbinding collection of dark arts and crafts! Full-color photos of 25+ completed projects are accompanied by simple illustrated instructions for crafting scraps, found objects, and everyday items into wonderfully witchy treats: turn a handful of old trinkets into a truly wicked charm bracelet. Trap your beloved's locks in heart-shaped locket. Stitch up a midnight black tutu in minutes. Make satin flowers into bewitching headband. Fashion an average plushie into a wicked little poison apple. Sew a faux puppy-fur coat (a la Cruella DeVille!) out of your old stuffed animals. And much, much more!

Both books are available from Amazon and other places too...

THE DYING OF 'THE LIGHT'

By Jason Kristopher.

We do get contacted by a large number of authors, but this book almost slipped under the radar. 30 5 star reviews out of 51 on Amazon... Should be worth checking out!

"I didn't see Rebecca die the second time."
The United States military hides a secret: the completely real existence of eat-your-brains, one-bite-and-you're-dead zombies. The Army has known they exist for over a hundred years, and has been quietly and expertly keeping the secret.
Until now.
His hometown destroyed, with everyone he has ever known dead and gone, the sole survivor of the massacre at Fall Creek joins a secret military group to combat the single greatest threat our world has ever faced. Unfortunately, his help may come too late. Even as victories over the walkers mount, the seeds of our ultimate doom are sown from within, and at the last, only a brave few may survive to carry on.

ZOMBIES!!! DIRECTOR'S CUT

Your heart pounds in your chest and you are finding it very hard to breathe.

The zombies are everywhere and seem quite intent on making you lunch. With so many of them, it's hard to tell if the scraping footsteps and moaning are down the hall or just around the corner. One thing is for sure, they are too close for comfort, you are almost out of bullets, and your luck seems to have just about run its course!

Zombies!!! puts you in the action as you try to escape the ever advancing zombie horde. Players must use a combination of wits and brawn to be the first to the heliport and certain escape. The only problem is, the zombies are everywhere, they appear to be very hungry and your opponents would really prefer if you didn't escape.

The game, for two to six players, features an ever changing map and an ever-growing army of the undead.

Players take turns playing map tiles, placing zombies, running furiously, fighting and generally creating havoc for the opposition. This makes Zombies!!! a different game every time you play it. The game features 30 map tiles, a 50 card event deck, 6 humans, life and ammunition tokens, AND 100 plastic zombies in two different poses. The helicopter is about to leave, will you make it?
